DRAMA MATTERS: SO DOES YOUR VOICE

“The most significant contributing factor to the inclusion of drama in the education entitlement for all young people in the Australian national curriculum has been collaborative advocacy”.

Saunders, J. N., & Stinson, M. (2017). Drama in the Australian national curriculum - the role of advocacy. NJ: Drama Australia Journal, 40(2), 113-126. DOI: 10.1080/14452294.2016.1276737

Research into the development of the Australian Curriculum found that the inclusion of Drama was substantially shaped by systematic, organised and collaborative advocacy by national and state associations and alliances.
